Cooperating Agency Meeting

The next scheduled meeting is Thursday, November 18th. Renovations in room 4B, our usual meeting room, will require finding another site for the next several months. I'll keep you posted about that.

Thanks for your patience as we prepare a solid draft DEIS for your review. I might also mention that about 150 technical reports are now posted to www.rosemonteis.us for your review. We will be poised to address your formal comments during the Cooperating Agency and public DEIS review periods.
